FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT POLICY

Thistly Meadow Primary School

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT POLICY

The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

1. Introduction: what a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish;
- The manner in which the information will be published; and
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available via contact with the school office.

Some information which we hold may not be made public, for example personal information.

This publication scheme conforms to the model scheme for schools approved by the Information Commissioner.

2. Aims and Objectives

Thistly Meadow Primary School promotes high achievement by working with children to:

- Be happy, highly motivated lifelong learners.
- Achieve their very best in all areas of the curriculum.
- Develop enquiring minds, creativity and a spirit of curiosity.
- Develop self-confidence, self-esteem, self-reliance and self-respect.
- Respect themselves, others and the world in which they live.
- Be able to work collaboratively and independently.
- Extend themselves in mind, body and spirit.

- Develop flexibility, adaptability, technological and problem solving skills required for the modern world.

At Thistly Meadow we support these aims by:

- Providing a broad, balanced and challenging curriculum.
- Providing a rich programme of extra-curricular activities and visits.
- Creating a stimulating, active and well resourced learning environment.
- Working collaboratively towards common goals.
- Developing a learning partnership between home, school and the community.

- Creating a tolerant, caring, supportive environment which promotes equality and mutual respect.
- Offering an ethos of challenge, support and encouragement to succeed.

3. Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information known as ‘classes’. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The classes of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

- School Prospectus – information published in the school prospectus
- Governors’ Documents.
- Pupils & Curriculum – information and policies that relate to pupils and the school curriculum.
- School Policies and other information related to the school.
